ANTIPYRIN has been justly termed by Germano Söe, the eminent French theorist, "the remedy for pain." A prominent among its actions is that of relieving headache. "It prevents as well as cures the attack,"—Dr. Klinberg. The British Medical Journal says, "In Antipyrin we possess a powerful analgesic for pain of nervous and rheumatic origin." From one to three Tabloids is the amount usually required for headaches. Antipyrin Tabloids are supplied by all Chemists in bottles containing 25 and 100.

Persistent rumours are being circulated that Messrs. O'Brien and Dillon want to leave the Bank for America, but missed the steamer and that both are now hiding in the vicinity of Paris.

HONGKONG LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

A meeting of the Legislative Council was held yesterday afternoon. There were present:

HIS EXCELLENCE THE ACTING GOVERNOR,

Hon. F. E. FLEMING, C.M.G.

Hon. W. M. DEANE, C.M.G. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Hon. H. J. ACKROYD, Acting Attorney-General.

Hon. H. E. WOODWARD, Acting Colonial Treasurer.

Hon. S. GOWAN, Surveyor-General.

Hon. G. D. MITCHELL-LYNES, Acting Registrar-General.

Hon. P. RYME, Clerk of Council.

FINANCIAL MINUTE.

A financial minute recommending the Council to vote a sum of $4,000, as a gratuity to the widow of Mr. Arthur Wagner, late Assistant Marine Surveyor and Assistant Superintendent and Engineer of the Fire Brigade, in consideration of his husband's services, was laid on the table and referred to the Standing Committee.

THE PROPOSED REDUCTION OF PAYMENT.

The Acting Colonial Secretary laid on the table the report of the last meeting of the Finance Committee. The recommendation that the Dispatch of the Secretary of State for 1881 be postponed for two or three weeks, which I would rather regret. Inasmuch as the hon. member who moved the motion, and the Council, if he had a mind to bring forward my motion in opposition to that I will be very happy to put his motion as an amendment.

THE ACTING COLONIAL SECRETARY.—The Superannuation Fund to which the hon. member refers is in a matter which distinctly affects the civil service, and it is a fact to be noted that the civil service is not a part of Civil Service. The Superannuation Fund was to provide pensions for the officers themselves, and therefore when the pension system was established in 1883 the Superannuation Fund ceased to exist. It has therefore no connection with the Bill to provide for the widows and children of deceased officers who have not received a gratuity.

Hon. P. RYME.—I am obliged to you, Sir, for your explanation.

Hon. H. J. KESWICK.—I am obliged to you, Sir, for your explanation.

Hon. H. T. WHITEHEAD.—I am obliged to you, Sir, for your explanation.

Hon. F. A. HAZELDINE, Clerk of Council.

THE APPROPRIATION BILL, 1881.

The Acting Colonial Secretary—To vote the sum of $4,000, as a gratuity to the widow of Mr. Arthur Wagner, late Assistant Marine Surveyor and Assistant Superintendent and Engineer of the Fire Brigade.

Hon. P. RYME.—I am sorry to interrupt, but in answer to the question put by the hon. member, I do not suppose I could have spoken on the subject, as he put it in the form of a question. But now, as we are on the Estimates, I may speak, and I need hardly say that I am fully prepared to do so. The hon. member has called upon me to give him a statement of what I am doing, and I may however mention that though it is referred to a Standing Committee any member has the right to attend that Committee and make what observations he likes.

The hon. member was silent and carried.
